Dear Mrs. Manley:

Regarding Barclay Credit and Collection Bureau.
I would just write them advising you are not going to be bulldozed into paying a bill you or the league didn't incur. Advise them it was a private promotion and money for this bill was turned over to Gus Greenlee to pay, and it is up to them to collect from him. Advise them you were willing to intervene and try to get the league members to put up some money each to clear the account for Gus Greenlee, but if they won't go along, there is nothing we can do about it.

Regarding your letter of July 6th and wire, Rigney must be crazy. First of all, Hairston accepted transportation from us but hasn't reported yet. Secondly, he doesn't belong to Rigney, because he never reported there and the only consideration Rigney asked for at the Pittsburgh meeting was that the club signing him collect $45 they advanced, and refund it to Toledo. This was put in a motion by myself on Rigney's own suggestion. Wellmaker had no right to be with them, they violating the agreement by having him at all, as our clubs didn't waive on him, and Carlisle is a free agent according to agreement to leave all players as they were at time of meeting.

Furthermore, he is damn lucky we allowed him to take any players like Carter, Harvey, Clarkson, etc, out of our league. I am positively convinced something is wrong with the man.

Regarding agreement, player Jack <sup>BU</sup> Burton jumped our league and went to Cleveland without any waivers and owes us about $32.
